LADOT Celebrates People Bicycling with Free DASH, Commuter Express Trips May 17

Los Angeles, CA (May 15, 2018)

LADOT Transit is offering people bicycling free rides on its DASH and Commuter Express buses to celebrate Bike to Work Day Thursday, May 17. To encourage this fun and healthy method of transportation, people with a bicycle or helmet can hop on any LADOT Transit vehicle for free.

All Commuter Express buses are outfitted with bike racks on the front - each rack accommodates three bicycles. For DASH riders, DASH buses have two-position racks on the front of the bus. Metro will also offer free rides to bicyclists who board with a bicycle or helmet on Metro buses and trains May 17.

We are also supporting people bicycling on Bike to Work Day with an LADOT pit stop at CalTrans plaza at 100 S. Main St. It is one of the many pit stops planned for May 17.

"Everyone should be free to travel safely and comfortably throughout the City. That's why LADOT has prioritized investments that makes biking accessible and convenient for anyone that wants to ride. On National Bike to Work Week, we encourage Angelenos to hop on a bike and ride to work. To make it even more convenient and safe, anyone with a bike can mount their bike to DASH and ride for free."

LADOT operates city streets to accommodate all road users. Bike to Work Day is a good reminder for all modes of mobility to come together and make bicycle riders feel safe and comfortable.
