This year we are highlighting the talented people at the Los Angeles Department of Transportation who are delivering core services to the public every day.

On the following pages you will see the faces of some of the exceptional women and men who are moving Los Angeles forward.

We are LADOT.

Jaime de la Vega
General Manager

Check out the services we delivered in FY 2012 and a short video featuring our team.
“It’s a great feeling when people appreciate your work and say thank you for doing a great job.”
“I love the constant change. I basically never work the same job twice, every day there’s something new.”
“It’s rewarding to see people benefit from our services.”
William Navarro
Traffic Marking & Sign Superintendent 1
Field Operations Division

“I stay motivated knowing that I make a difference by making the streets safer.”
“We have the power to transform people’s lives...to allow them to get out of their cars and have a healthy commute.”
“I enjoy being active out in the field. It gives me great satisfaction helping people get where they need to go.”
"I enjoy coming to work because there are new challenges to respond to every day."
“It’s great to be in a position that allows me to make positive changes to the city that is home to me.”
“We are making great strides ‘greening’ the city’s taxis, reducing smog, pollution, and greenhouse gas emissions.”
“I stay motivated by resolving the issues of the citizens.”
"I enjoy helping employees with payroll issues. Everyone deserves to be paid in a timely manner."
Deshane Miller Sr.
Signal System Electrician
Field Operations Division

"I like field work. I've spent my whole career in the field and I like to interact with the public."
"I take pride in my work and feel it contributes to making a difference in our community."
