

LADOT Vision Zero Community Street Team 2019

The Los Angeles Department of Transportation's (LADOT) Vision Zero Division is hiring a team of part-time on-call street team workers to support with community engagement and outreach across Los Angeles County. The department seeks passionate, creative, and committed people to support with outreach. LADOT invites interested candidates to apply. This on-call position does not require a criminal background check or a drug test. LADOT will make reasonable accommodations to reduce barriers to employment for this position.

About Vision Zero

Vision Zero is a City effort to implement policies, programs, and projects that eliminate traffic-related deaths in Los Angeles. Dignity-Infused Community Engagement is a key aspect of the City's approach. More information can be found at <http://visionzero.lacity.org/>.

Summary of Role

This job opportunity will be up to two years in length. Work and timeframe will be adaptable to each team member's availability, strengths, and personal interests/goals. Schedule and number of hours expected each week will vary.

Duties & Responsibilities May Include:

- Outreach to community residents about Vision Zero, transportation safety, and LADOT through canvassing neighborhoods, phonebanking, flyering homes and businesses, and attending events to speak directly to residents about Vision Zero, LADOT programs, and other resources available to them
- Tabling at community events for LADOT and Vision Zero
- Participating in periodic team trainings to learn about Vision Zero project developments
- Other duties as assigned or required

Qualifications:

- Interested in making a positive impact in Los Angeles communities
- Comfortable in a fast-paced environment
- Available to work days, evenings and weekends, as determined by need
- All languages welcome
